

COLLEGE ADMISSIONS COACHING PACKAGES: Class of 2028

Early Starter - $99/mo.

For families who want structure, accountability, and expert guidance without overloading the process. This plan is ideal for students who are ready to be more intentional but don't need frequent meetings to stay on track.

What's Included:

- Strategically spaced coaching sessions focused on academic planning and early positioning.
- Guidance on course selection, extracurricular priorities, and preparation for junior-year expectations.
- Early college fit conversations introduced thoughtfully and without pressure.
- Personalized action steps after each meeting to maintain momentum.
- Email access for questions, check-ins, and adjustments between sessions.

Results You Can Expect:

- A student who enters junior year prepared rather than rushed.
- Clear academic and activity direction heading into the most important planning phase.
- A smoother transition into test planning, college exploration, and applications.

One-Time Program Fee (through March of senior year): $4,495

Early Guided Journey - $179/mo.

For families who want consistent support and a more hands-on planning experience as expectations increase. This plan works well for students who benefit from regular feedback as decisions begin to matter more.

What's Included:

- More frequent coaching to support academic planning, activity alignment, and early college exploration.
- Guidance to begin shaping a cohesive personal narrative across coursework and interests.
- Strategic preparation for junior-year milestones, including testing and list development.
- Ongoing progress monitoring to prevent last-minute stress.
- Continued access for questions, refinements, and decision support.

Results You Can Expect:

- A student who understands the strategy behind their choices.
- Strong alignment between academic planning and future college goals.
- A confident, well-prepared entry into the application phase.

One-Time Program Fee (through March of senior year): $7,995

Early Ultimate Destination - $249/mo.

For families who want comprehensive support and full strategic oversight as the admissions process approaches. This plan offers the highest level of access while maintaining an intentional pacing early on.

What's Included:

- Priority access with flexible scheduling as needs arise.
- Integrated planning across academics, activities, leadership, and application strategy.
- Early and ongoing storytelling support to ensure coherence across the student's profile.
- Proactive guidance as priorities sharpen and deadlines approach.
- Ongoing communication to reduce stress and uncertainty.

Results You Can Expect:

- A calm, well-managed process that scales naturally into junior and senior year.
- A student whose profile is built with intention rather than urgency.
- Maximum confidence heading into applications.

One-Time Program Fee (through March of senior year): $10,995
